1. Two civilian trains with resettlers and expellees coming from the Waren (N 54/U 35) district arrived in Ludwigslust (M 54/T 53) on 3 and 7 January 1950.
2. A woman expellee said that the Germans residing in Waren and the Waren district had to evacuate their dwellings by Soviet order. It was allegedly rumored among the population that the Soviets intended to declare the Waren district off limits since airfields were to be constructed there.
